

INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW – HARMONIZATION AND KEY LEGAL INSTRUMENTS OF THE UNITED NATIONS COMMISSION ON INTERNATIONAL TRADE LAW (UNCITRAL)

9 TO 13 MARCH 2026

Sponsored by the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME

under the

SINGAPORE COOPERATION PROGRAMME TRAINING AWARD

Singapore Cooperation Programme

Singapore has provided technical assistance to other developing countries since the 1960s. As a country whose only resource is its people, Singapore believes that human resource development is vital for economic and social progress. Singapore itself has benefited from training provided by other countries and international organisations.

In 1992, the Singapore Cooperation Programme (SCP) was established to bring together under one framework the various technical assistance programmes offered by Singapore. Through the SCP, the range and number of training programmes were increased to share Singapore's development experience with other developing countries.

To date, over 150,000 officials from more than 180 countries, territories, and intergovernmental organisations have participated in our courses and study visits. The SCP is managed by the Technical Cooperation Directorate of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Singapore.

Course Objectives

This course will provide an overview of international trade law and key legal instruments prepared and recommended by UNCITRAL, the core legal body of the United Nations in the field of international trade law. Participants will have greater understanding of the legal issues and solutions provided by UNCITRAL instruments, including insights on instruments that Singapore participated actively in developing as a member of UNCITRAL.

Synopsis

Topics to be covered include:

- Overview of International trade law
- Overview of current work at various fora (including WTO and ASEAN) on international trade law
- Examination of key international legal instruments from UNCITRAL (including recent work on judicial sale of ships, automated contracting, warehouse receipts, and voluntary carbon credits)
- Implementation with domestic legislation
- Dispute resolution, including the Singapore Convention on Mediation and current work on Investor-State Dispute Settlement Reform

Methodology

The course will be conducted in-person in Singapore and will include the delivery of course sessions, case studies, country presentations as well as group discussions.

Course Duration and Venue

The course will be held from 9 to 13 March 2026 in Singapore.
